Bohlevale State School is located adjacent to the Bruce Highway in the northern suburbs of Townsville in North Queensland.

Students from the suburbs of Bohle, Burdell, Deeragun, Black River, Bushland Beach, Mt Low and Saunders Beach attend our school.

Significant housing developments have seen our enrolment increase over the past few years and with development continuing, it is anticipated that our enrolments will continue to grow.

Bohlevale State School is in Education Queensland's Townsville District which is part of the North Queensland Education Region - other schools in the District can be seen on the Townsville District map.
